

Voted by Counsel as Best Lawyers®
2014 "Lawyer of the Year" in the L.A. area for Arbitration (Neutral) skills

2013 has been quite the year for Max.

Nominated in April by the Los Angeles Superior Court ADR office for his hard work over many years, Max was the sole recipient in the area of ADR of a Los Angeles County Volunteer of the Year Award.

Now we are thrilled to announce that after years of being on US News & World Report/Best Law's list of the Best Law Firms (for ADR), Max has now also been honored as The Best Lawyer's "Lawyer of the Year" in Arbitration for 2014, which means, of course, that his skills as an Arbitrator have been assessed by counsel and found to be worthy. Max has been a full-time neutral since 2000.

Best Lawyers® began designating "Lawyers of the Year" in the U.S. in high-profile legal practice areas in 2009. Lawyers being honored as "Lawyer of the Year" are selected based on particularly impressive voting averages received during the exhaustive peer-review assessments Best Lawyers® conduct with thousands of leading lawyers each year. Receiving this designation reflects the high level of respect the winner has earned among leading counsel and neutrals in the same communities and the same practice areas for their abilities, their professionalism, and their integrity. Only a single practitioner in each practice area and designated metropolitan area is honored as the "Lawyer of the Year," making this accolade particularly significant.
